

SUKKOT
Mosaic by Michael Muchnik

Tishrei 15-21 Sukkot

Sukkot is a joyous holiday. For seven days, we are once again the original People of Moses wandering in the wilderness, surrounded by the Clouds of Glory. Only now those clouds are the greenery of a festive hut—called a Sukkah. All meals are eaten in the Sukkah, barring inclement weather. All the common activities of life, when they happen inside the Sukkah, become holy acts. And all of the person is encompassed in this mitzvah, from head to toe.

Each day of Sukkot, except Shabbat, from Oct. 1 until Oct. 7, we shake the 'four kinds' during the daytime.

For help with building a Sukkah, or acquiring the 'four kinds', please contact us.

Tishrei 22-23 Simchat Torah

The joy of Sukkot expands for seven days and then bursts into Shemini Atzeret—a day containing all the joy of the coming year. The second evening of Shemini Atzeret, we celebrate Simchat Torah: All the Scrolls of the Torah are carried from their ark around the bimah seven times, with dance and song. In some communities, this is done on the first night, as well. On the morning of the second day, every man and boy is called to the Torah, as we complete the yearly cycle of Torah reading, and begin immediately anew.
